

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: _____ : _____ - _____ : _____

Underline the eight possessive pronouns in the paragraph and write them in the space below.

Last night I gave my brother some advice about his first day of school. I told him, "Remember to grab your lunch before you leave our house. Share with your classmates, and say things like 'This is mine, but you can borrow it if you want.' Respect your teacher. Don't be afraid to ask for her help. Lastly, don't run in the hallways."

1. _____ my _____

4. _____ our _____

7. _____ your _____

2. _____ his _____

5. _____ your _____

8. _____ her _____

3. _____ your _____

6. _____ mine _____

Underline the six possessive pronouns in the paragraph and write them in the space below.

Last April was my parents' wedding anniversary. They took a trip and my sister and I stayed at our grandparents' house. They took great care of us. Grandpa brought us to school every day in his car. Grandma made our favorite foods for dinner. I can't wait to stay at their house again sometime!

1. _____ my _____

3. _____ our _____

5. _____ our _____

2. _____ my _____

4. _____ his _____

6. _____ their _____

Underline the six possessive pronouns in the paragraph and write them in the space below.

Earlier this week, my friend Amanda told me that she was very nervous about her first Math test this school year. Amanda said her teacher was very helpful, but she just didn't understand some of the concepts. Amanda is not in my class, but I tried to help her study. She took the test and got it back the next day. Amanda brought her test to me in . excitement and shouted, "I got a B! I could not have done it without your help. Thank you!"

1. _____ my _____

3. _____ her _____

5. _____ her _____

2. _____ her _____

4. _____ my _____

6. _____ your _____